A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, the St. Albans Bank, a corporation, duly incorporated by the Legislature of the State of Vermont, located and doing business at St. Albans, in the county of Franklin, has made application to me, requesting me to issue a proclamation designating some day for the termination of the existence of said corporation;

And whereas, it has been made to appear to me that two-thirds of the legal votes of the stockholders of said corporation were given in favor of said application;

Now, therefore, I, Paul Dillingham, Governor of the State of Vermont, in conformity with said application, and the provisions of section eighty-six and eighty-seven of chapter eighty-nine of the General Statutes of Vermont, do hereby issue my proclamation, and declare that on the twenty-fifth day of March, A. D. 1868, the said corporation shall cease to exist as fully and with the same effect as if said charter expired by the limitation thereof.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto, signed my name and caused the seal of the State to be hereunto affixed, in Executive Chambers at Waterbury, this 23rd day of September, A. D. 1867, and of the Independence of the United States the 91st.

PAUL DILLINGHAM.

By the Governor, Wm. P. DILLINGHAM, Sec'y of Civil and Military Affairs.

THE AGRICULTURAL REPORT.—The agricultural report for June is out. The report shows altogether an increase of 18 to 20 per cent. in the aggregate number of acres of wheat. Reports of condition for June are generally very favorable. The promise of the best crop ever known is held out by local correspondents in many places, particularly West of the Mississippi. Some complaint of falling off is made, but the extent of this damage, which has been more severe during the latter part of the month, is not determined. Many of the most serious complaints of winter killing in Kentucky and Tennessee have been greatly modified by subsequent growth and tilling of roots presumed to be dead.

ONLY IN APPEARANCE.—The Manchester Union tells a good story. In the northern part of Merrimack county a crowd of the unfortunates were sitting in a piazza the other day, when an old traveler, ragged, dirty, rusty, unshaven and unshorn, and evidently half-dead over, strolled up to the piazza and stared vacantly at the crowd, which began to ply him with questions. Finally a man said to him, "You're a Seymour man, aren't you, old fellow?" Straightening up, the old chap answered, "From my present appearance you would probably judge I was a Democrat, but I ain't. I learnt my politics before I took to drink."

NORMANDY DRAUGHT HORSES.—The New York Evening Post announces the arrival in this country of eleven Normandy draught horses, to be sent to Ohio, to be crossed with the Western team horse. Every person who has seen these admirable horses at work in the teams or in the omnibuses and diligences of France, must have been struck with their good points and good qualities as working horses. They are not large or slab-sided, like the Liverpool draught-horse or the London beer-horse; but are sound-bodied, compact, short-legged, some fifteen or sixteen hands high. They are made somewhat like the old Sherman Morgan horse, but larger and heavier, and consequently are slower and not so good roadsters as that best of all American horses for ordinary use.

We hope these Normans may find their way into Vermont, and be crossed there with the Morgans. Any way, they are a valuable acquisition to our horse stock, strong, tough easily kept, kind and docile.
